Randy Behm to speak at Banquet

Randy Behm, Class of 1976, will be the speaker at this year's Alumni Banquet Saturday, May 26 in the high school cafeteria. Featured guests will be the members of each class who graduated in a year ending in 6 or 1.

As Senior Vice President and Director of Key Education Resources at KeyCorp in Westlake, Ohio, Behm is responsible for managing all activities surrounding this nationwide education financing product line, including marketing, customer service, new product development, and loan sales and securitizations.

Key Education Resources, one of the nation's largest bank holding companies, provides over $1.5 billion annually to finance education from grade school to graduate school and continuing education.

Behm joined Key as a financial analyst in 1982. Since then, he has held positions of increasing responsibility throughout the bank's Financial Analysis, Consumer Markets and Consumer Investment Banking divisions. Prior to his current position, he managed the credit approval function for all of the company's consumer loan centers.

Behm is a board member of ELM Resources; a California based company providing for the electronic delivery of financial aid for education. He is also a member of the Board of Directors of American Student Assistance (ASA), a Massachusetts based guarantor of federal education loans. The governor of Ohio appointed Behm to the Ohio Student Aid Commission for two three-year terms. He also speaks regularly at various conferences on education financing throughout the United States and in Europe.

Behm earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree in economics and mathematics from Lawrence University in Wisconsin and a Master's Degree from the University of Michigan's Graduate School of Business.

A three-sport athlete in high school, Behm was president of the B Club his senior year, sports editor of the Mascoutin, a National Honor Society member and a Badger Boys State delegate.

His wife, Cheryl, is a Registered Nurse and received her Bachelor of Science in nursing from Ohio State University. She is currently a Paramedic Instructor for Lakewood Hospital serving the western suburbs of Cleveland. In addition, she is a Parish Nurse for Gethsemane Lutheran Church through a program with Fairview Hospital.

The Behms live in Westlake, Ohio with their two sons, David (15) and Jon (11). David is a freshman at Lutheran High School West and Jon is a 6th grader at Lakewood Lutheran School.
